THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.

At— While everything is lovely, and the Goose hangs high.

In June of '63, I suppose you all know,
Gen'l Lee had a plan into Washington to go;
For Lincoln's men are going home, and then, my boys, we'll try,
While everything is lovely, and the goose hangs high.
He starts the raid, with Stuart to lead the rebel van,
For forage, it was getting low; your nation had his men.

BRAVE BOYS ARE THEY

BY HENRY C. WORK.

Dedicated to the Sisters of our Volunteers.

Heavily falls the rain,
Wild are the breezes to-night.

Thinking no less of them,
Loveless and lone to-night.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE, MOTHER.

Just re the bat mother,
I 'king on the f you—
